For Immediate Release

PHYSICAL THERAPY ONE TO OPEN AT THE SHOPPES AT STADIUM DRIVE

Kalamazoo, Michigan. The Hinman Company is pleased to announce that Physical Therapy One (PT1) will be opening the doors to their second location by the end of this week. Physical Therapy One will be the first business to open in the new shopping center, The Shoppes at Stadium Drive.

PT1, Owned by Joe & Leah Walters, is a full-service outpatient physical therapy practice which provides rehabilitation, wellness, and injury prevention services for the spine and extremities. “We are very excited about this second location as it helps us in achieving our goal of being in a location that easily accessible and central to our clients” says Joe Walters.

The Shoppes at Stadium Drive is a new upscale 23,000 square foot retail center located at 3330 Stadium Drive next to Wayside West being developed by The Hinman Company. The first phase of the overall development is complete and future phases include the addition of two outlot buildings and expanding the existing retail center for a total of up to 48,000 square feet.

Rich MacDonald, COO, says “We believe that Physical Therapy One will be a valuable addition to the Shoppes at Stadium Drive. We are pleased that Physical Therapy One has committed to this location and we are currently working with several other retailers. We expect to announce several more tenants in the very near future.”

The Shoppes at Stadium Drive will managed and leased by The Hinman Company, which has been leasing and managing office properties throughout the Midwest for over 25 years. The Hinman Company is headquartered at The Trade Centre, 750 Trade Centre Way, Suite 100, Portage, MI 49002.
